

A smouldering wick he will not quench

Hebrews 1v1-4

God speaks

Bible study questions and application

1st March 2020 am Hill and Arcadia

1. Discuss the advent of an age of multiple opinions and how that affects our lives as Christians.
2. Is it true to suggest that confusion is the order of the day with many people scared of saying or believing something that is contrary to popular opinion?
3. Review the Hebrews logic in their confused state but eventually landing on the usefulness of the Old Testament
4. Discuss the importance of Revelation (God speaking) as opposed to speculative opinions by man.
5. Why is Revelation essential? (Think in terms of God being infinite and eternal and all wise while people are finite and sinful creatures – How can a finite creature successfully scrutinize the infinite Creator?)
6. Is it true to say that having a record of God's speaking (The Bible) is one of the most important foundational doctrines to be convinced about?
7. Review the 3 points of the sermon regarding Divine Revelation
8. How do we go forward in matter of life, faith and doctrine (using present day issues as examples) to address the confusion and fear we face in our current world context?
